

Subject	Topic(s)	Assessment	Deadline	Delivery method
PE	Daily workouts and physical challenges.	N/A	N/A	SHSGPE instagram account
Maths	A single booklet sent to students on a particular topic, containing all the learning material and questions to be completed.	A mini quiz on Microsoft Teams, taking no longer than 10 to 15 minutes No formal grade given, await return to school to test knowledge.	Initial fortnightly deadlines which are adapted to student feedback	Microsoft Teams to centralise all information, Videos made by Teaching staff, Emails sent to students Each objective in the booklet has a video (made by teachers) students can work through, with examples to help understanding.
French	A past visit to France	Variety of tasks concentrating on language acquisition and comprehension	Weekly deadlines	A variety of resources including Class Notebook and online resources including Active learn, Seneca, this is language and Language online
German	Holidays and Travel. Using three tenses.	A variety of tasks including reading comprehension tasks, translation, vocab and grammar drilling and writing.	Weekly deadlines.	A variety of online resources including Active learn, klar.co.uk, languages online
Spanish	Talking about a past tense holiday. Films, TV and Media	A variety of tasks including reading comprehension tasks, translation, vocab and grammar drilling and writing.	Fortnightly deadlines	PowerPoint presentations with explanatory audio, videos, worksheets and online resources quizlet, conjuguemos, studyspanish.com Work e-mailed to students lesson by lesson.
Music	Music Journalism	A complete music review on a song or album of the student's choice, following guidance in the PowerPoint document.	First sentence of review to be sent at the end of Lesson 2; complete review to be sent by 25 th May.	One PowerPoint containing all five-lessons work has been sent to all students.
Art	Mrs Stewart's classes: Surrealism Miss Trevena's classes: View through a window Ms Leman's classes: Portraits	Project work will be assessed. No fine grade or mark will be awarded but feedback and merits will be provided. Formal grade will follow when work is submitted on paper when back at school.	22 nd May	Work has been emailed out to students.
Technology	Current project is a choice of three assignments on contemporary topics Dr Seuss multi-media project issued to begin next week and run until end of term	Will be emailed to teacher for assessment based on variety of content/design criteria Students will need to update timesheets and give fortnightly correspondence/photo-updates with teacher	1 st project due May 1 st Fortnightly checks Summative assessment at end of term	Sent out via email, but also in handbooks

			2 nd project due 22 nd May.
RS	Christian Faith / pilgrimage	Assessed Essay	Essay on worship due 4 th May All other work due 22 nd May	Series of questions requiring written answers, one piece of creative work which can be submitted in any format. To be sent as a whole task sheet at one time and pupils to organise how and when they do it, themselves.
Science	Organisms, Waves	This will be a variety of activities. Mini tests set on forms, exam question packs, research projects, Microsoft forms, BBC Bitesize quiz's.	Teachers will set deadlines in each email.	Emails sent by class teachers on day of lesson for work that day.
History	Historical novella	Project work. Whole class and individualised feedback provided as appropriate.	Various interim deadlines set.	Emailed out to students to complete on a lesson by lesson basis.
Geography	First task topics: Individual lessons on Development including BRICS, poverty, UK inequality and gender Inequality. Second task topics: Sustainable development goals	Assessment of 1 st task: Work sent in via email. Sent whole-class feedback or individual feedback depending on work type (poster/skills etc.). Assessment of 2 nd task: MCQ for end of topic assessment in development done via Quizizz or Word document emailed for those who cannot access Quizizz. 4-week project on Sustainable Development Goals.	2 nd task due 22 nd May Plus interim deadlines to see work and check progress.	School email
English	Poetry	Various. Generally short answer questions (analysis or explanation - 5-30 minutes per task) but also some creative work, which will take longer. Answers and feedback provided by class teacher.	End of each fortnight (Friday afternoon)	Poetry anthology has been emailed to students. New tasks will be emailed every other Monday.
Computer Science	Python Coding	Automatic assessment of the code via the website, Teacher assessment of creative tasks.	Individual groups will have guidance from the teacher on expected progress	Online log in to CMU website, students coding live on the site.