Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Southend High School for Girls encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- contacting the Exams Officer who will direct the concern or complaint to the appropriate member of the Senior Leadership Team.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Head of Centre.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- the time frame detailed in the School's complaints procedure.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow the process detailed in the School's complaints procedures.

How a formal complaint is investigated

A formal complaint is investigated in line with the School's complaints procedure.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- the time scale detailed in the School's complaints procedure.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow the School's complaints procedure.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- the time frame detailed in the School's complaints procedure.

The appeal will be referred to:

- the next escalation point as detailed in the School's complaints procedure.

It will be the responsibility of the relevant member of staff to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
